

First announcement

The European Headache Federation's "Headache Summer School"

June 2nd – 4th 2016

Tallinn, Estonia

The European Headache Federation's "Headache Summer School" in 2016 will be held in Tallinn, capital of Estonia. The Course is targeted to general practitioners with special interest in headache, general neurologists and internal medicine specialists.

The Course faculty includes international headache experts led by the president of European Headache Federation prof. Dimos D. Mitsikostas and local leader-specialists in headache management. The three day course includes world-class lectures which cover both common and rare type headaches as well as high-quality interactive case discussions.

International faculty

Prof. Dimos Mitsikostas (Greece)
Prof. Zaza Katsarava (Germany)

Prof. Vera Osipova (Russia)
Prof. Charly Gaul (Germany)

Use this opportunity to raise the knowledge about the leading complaint in humans – headache – to a higher level!

MARK YOUR CALENDAR AND STAY TUNED FOR FURTHER ANNOUNCEMENTS!

Sincerely on behalf of the organizing committee
Mark Braschinsky, MD, PhD
President of Estonian Headache Society